Please attach a short one paragraph bio to be used by the chair to introduce you.

In accordance of the bylaws, all candidates for the board must be members of the Westmoreland Players. Membership criteria is established under the articles of incorporation.

A. Membership dues are defined as following:

1. Volunteering 15 hours in Westmoreland Players sponsored activities in the season leading up to the annual meeting or
2. Making an annual monetary contribution of $300.

To be on the posted list of nominees, candidates must submit this application form by the due date stated above. The election will be held at the Annual Meeting on Sunday, August 27, 2017, at 3 p.m. Nominations may be taken from the floor.

Before balloting occurs, each nominee will be asked to deliver a two minute address to the membership supporting his/her candidacy. Lack of theatrical experience is not disqualifying, there are many skills needed by The Players to maintain the high quality of productions and service to the community. It is suggested that candidates consider carefully their experiences in the workplace, and with other organizations within the community that would benefit the Players.

Ballots will contain the printed name of each candidate filling out an application form; in case of nominations from the floor there will be the opportunity to write in their names. Members will be required to vote for three candidates. Any ballots not listing three candidates will be declared invalid and discarded.

Box Office Only:
